

American Legion invites high school students to compete in speech contest

Winners will earn scholarship money, chance to compete in national finals.

High school students of (community) have been invited by (name of post) Post _____ of The American Legion to compete in the _____ annual American Legion High School Oratorical Scholarship Program. The invitation to enter the competition was extended today by Post Commander (or Post Oratorical Chairman) (full name).

The contest for (community) students has been arranged with the full cooperation of local school officials and (full name and title) of the (school name) faculty who will assist with the contest arrangements.

The subject in the prepared oration portion of the contest must be about some phase of the Constitution of the United States, emphasizing the duties and obligations of a citizen to the U. S. government. The prepared oration must be the original effort of each contestant and must be 8-10 minutes in length.

(Insert here a paragraph detailing the awards offered in the local competition.)

In addition to the awards by winners of the various elimination rounds of competition, college scholarships of $25,000, $22,500, and $20,000 will be awarded to the first through third places in the national finals. Each state winner who competes in the first round of the national contest will receive a $2,000 scholarship. Participants in the second round who do not advance to the national final round will receive an additional $2,000 scholarship. The top three youth orators who have won all previous elimination rounds of the contest will vie for top honors in the national contest in April in Indianapolis.

The American Legion will pay the expenses of state winners at the national contest.

High school students in (community) who are interested in entering the competition will find complete rules and contest information at _____

For more information, please visit legion.org/oratorical.

Contact (list name of contacts, email addresses and phone numbers)